Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-18, drawn to an implantable drug delivery system having a implantable housing with drug storage means and metering and dispensing means to delivery an effective amount of drug, classified in class 604, subclass 891.1.
 - II. Claims 19-20, drawn to a method of treating erectile dysfunction, classified in class 607, subclass 39.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case invention I can be used to practice another and materially different process such as treating insulin deficiency through subcutaneous injections of insulin by an implantable pump in response to blood glucose levels in the implanted subject.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species for components of the claims. The examiner has determined that there are two variable components with patentably distinct species being claimed. The first group is composed of species of implantable drug delivery devices and the second group is composed of species of delivery path preservation.

5. The implantable drug delivery device species:

- i. Species I: Figs 1-3
- ii. Species II: Figs 4-6
- iii. Species III: Figs 7-8

6. The delivery path preservation species: (paragraph 13)

- iv. Species I: Storage and delivery means for a substance that resists fibrous occlusions of the drug delivery port
- v. Species II: A fluid coating on the catheter
- vi. Species III: A film on the catheter

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed combination of elements (i.e. one species from the implantable drug delivery device species with one species of the delivery path preservation species) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Andrew M. Gilbert whose telephone number is (571) 272-7216. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30 am to 5:00 pm Monday through Friday.
